

Reminiscences & Traditionary Information of Calhoun Bates. June 5. 1875

"The Captain's Tent" mentioned in the old records was ~~the~~ ¹¹¹ on or about the lot of land owned by Abner Hensley ~~near~~ near Hunt's Cove. This lot is a dam meadow. He says the lot was named by the name of the "Captain's Tent." Abner Hensley's tradition is that the Indians had a tent there. —

I have always understood that a Hobart kept the first tavern in Wm in the lot corner of Lincoln Street & Corn Point Lane.

The houses below the residence of Barnabas Lincoln have been the same since my recollection.

But there were houses before my recollection - in other places in Lincoln Street.

There was a Tucker house near the line between the lots of Ena Lincoln & of Arthur Lathrop died.

The next below that was a Chubbuck house which stood near Lathrop's Barn. The cellar is visible. ~~It still remains~~. Enock Lincoln lived in it & his children were born there.

My father & Mory Grop tore it down.

Samuel Chubbuck who graduated had his study there. Mr Ena Lincoln could point out the room. Chubbuck built a house afterwards at Great Plains now standing - owned by French.

The next house N. West was in the "Barker lot" so called - now owned by Ena Whitson formerly known by the name of the "Gile lot" - Capt Francis Barker formerly owned it. The wife is now there. Eliza

Mary who died at 96 years of age told me she was born in that house. A large stone which laid by the side of the road within a year or two was the steps of the front door. —

— This stone was used to cover the drain from Barton's Lane to North Street - placed there by order of the Surveyor my brother Wm O Lincoln

Sabb 1 Bate,

Reminiscences

June 5 1875.

as to Captains' Feet

Wm. at Woodstock